I wish to apply for International Portability with REPs and agree: (please read carefully)

- That all information provided on this form is true and accurate.
- To be bound by any complaints process of REPs.
- That I give REPs permission to contact any third party to verify any details of my registration application.
- To any audits or reviews REPs may undertake to verify my level of registration and/or competencies.
- To allow REPs to disclose to third parties my registration/portability/application status.
- That incomplete applications are not processed until all required information is received and that the 20 working day turnaround time (7-10 working days if the urgent processing fee is paid) applies from when all applicable information to process the application is received by REPs.
- To make payment for this application. Refunds are NOT issued for any reason, even if the verification at the level applied for is not successful.
- Successful completion of this portability of qualification process does not provide you with registration in NZ.

By signing here I agree to the registration terms above, and payment terms for my credit card to be charged (if applicable)
